This week the children have continued to develop their bat and ball skills in PE. We have been balancing balls/bean bag on our rackets, dribbling the ball with our racket and hitting a ball/bean bag towards a target.

In Forest School this week the children have really enjoyed using the cameras to take pictures of the first signs of Spring. We saw flowers blooming and buds on the trees appearing .

Class 1 had a fantastic World Book Day on Friday! The children loved showing us their costumes and engaged in lots of story related activities!
